Four Saginaw County Commissioners Endorse Amos O'Neal for State Representative 95th District ahead of Primary

O'Neal's list of supporters continues to grow for State Representative run in 95th District

(Saginaw, Michigan) - Amos O'Neal, Saginaw County Commissioner and candidate for the 95th District of the Michigan House of Representatives, announces the endorsements of four Saginaw County Commissioners:

Carl E. Ruth, Vice Chair, District 10
Sheldon Matthews, District 4
Chuck Stack, District 2
James G. Theisen, District 5

The four Saginaw County Commissioners issued a joint statement of their endorsement of Amos O'Neal for the 95th District:

"It's with great honor that we submit this letter of support for our colleague Mr. Amos O'Neal who is running for the 95th State Representative Seat. Because we believe Mr. O'Neal understands our community needs and he's a seasoned leader during this time of transformative change and turmoil.

We need a State Representative who knows how to get things done in Lansing. We believe Mr. O'Neal is well equipped to deal with these unprecedented challenges in Lansing. His past experiences as a Saginaw City Councilman and his service as Saginaw County Commissioner gives him a solid foundation to be the 95th District Representative in Lansing.

Furthermore, Mr. O'Neal is a very energetic and enthusiastic candidate. He will be a great asset to the State House in Lansing. Mr. O'Neal is a creative problem solver, with outstanding leadership abilities and he grasps new ideas quickly. He has demonstrated a high degree of loyalty and trustworthiness to his work, community, family and to his associates. He has carried out his obligations with vigor and resolve."

Commissioner O'Neal commented, "Our campaign is only possible with the support of the Saginaw community. I am proud to have the endorsements of my colleagues on the Saginaw County Board of Commissioners. I am honored to have their support of my campaign for State Representative of the 95th District."
