Amos O'Neal campaign announces endorsements
O'Neal's list of supporters grows for State Representative run in 95th District

(Saginaw, Michigan) - A few months after announcing his campaign for State Representative for the 95th District, Saginaw County Commissioner Amos O'Neal is proud to announce more endorsements from around Saginaw County and the State of Michigan:

- Saginaw County Sheriff William Federspiel
- Saginaw County Undersheriff Mike Gomez
- Saginaw County Prosecutor John McColgan
- Saginaw Mayor Floyd Kloc
- Former Saginaw Mayor Joyce Seals
- Lansing Mayor Andy Schor
- Former Saginaw Mayor Gary Loster
- Saginaw City Councilman Michael D. Balls and
- Saginaw County Commissioners Jim Theisen, Sheldon Matthews, Carl Ruth and Chuck Stack
- Bridgeport Township Trustee Calvin Williams

The latest round of endorsements increases the momentum of O'Neal's surging campaign to represent the citizens of the 95th district.

All of these dedicated public servants have voiced their support for O'Neal's candidacy as a Strong Experienced Leader.

William Federspiel, Saginaw County Sheriff:

"I support Amos O'Neal because he has a proven track record of legislative service to the citizens in his district. He was not only a colleague of mine on the City Council of the City of Saginaw, he was a mentor and a leader during the early part of my political career. Many years later, I am now the Sheriff of Saginaw County and he is a Saginaw County Commissioner. Amos is well prepared to take the next logical step of serving in the House of Representatives and is a leader who listens to his constituents and represents us with honesty and integrity. We both hold the same values, and I am confident that he will be an outstanding representative. I live in the 95th District, and I will be voting for Amos O'Neal on August 4th, 2020."

John McColgan, Jr., Saginaw County Prosecutor:

"Amos has proven his commitment to his community through his public service on the Saginaw City Council and the Saginaw County Board of Commissioners as well as the many other community affairs he has been involved in, the qualities he has displayed in these endeavors show me that he will be an effective State Representative for the people of the 95th District."

Mayor Floyd Kloc, City of Saginaw, Michigan:

"It is a pleasure for me to endorse Amos O'Neal for State Representative for the 95th District. Covering the City of Saginaw, Buena Vista Township, Spaulding Township, and Bridgeport Township, it is important for this district to continue to have strong leadership in the State legislature. I've known Amos for years, from his service as a Saginaw City Councilmember and Mayor Pro Tem, through his service on the board of Saginaw County Commissioners. While serving on the Saginaw City Council and the Saginaw County Board of Commissioners, he has been a diligent and hardworking advocate for the City and the County for all the citizens he represents. He is smart, thoughtful, compassionate and knowledgeable of his constituents and their needs. I believe he will make a great representative for the 95th District."

Christine Dillard, Supervisor, Buena Vista Township:

"I chose candidate Amos O'Neal for the seat of Michigan House Representative for the 95th District. Amos O'Neal has shown steadfast servant leadership through Saginaw County for several years. His humble but stern leadership style is not only commendable, but effective for the people he serves. As the Commissioner for Saginaw County's 9th District that includes Buena Vista Charter Township, Commissioner O'Neal practiced inclusivity with our community leaders and residents and advocated strongly for fair and balanced policies.

Amos's consistent visibility within the community and dedication towards the well-being of our constituents have sustained the trust and confidence we have for him. With proud enthusiasm, I endorse Amos O'Neal for the 95th District State House Representative for the State of Michigan."

Commissioner O'Neal commented, "Our campaign is only possible with the support of the Saginaw community. I am proud to have the endorsements of more than 10 elected, active and former, officials in our community, the majority of whom live and vote in the 95th district. These individuals are political leaders that we trust to make the important decisions regarding quality of life in Saginaw County and the State of Michigan. I am honored to have their support in my campaign for State Representative of the 95th District."

With a focus on the issues that are on the mind of voters in Saginaw County, O'Neal stresses the importance of COVID-19 testing, protections for workers and unions, access for all to quality, affordable healthcare, and greater funding for education and vocational training.

"Our future depends on strong leadership to not only bring us out of the current pandemic but to also help build better outcomes for all of Michigan," O'Neal said.
