Amos O'Neal campaign announces endorsements from the Faith-Based Community

O'Neal's list of supporters grows for State Representative run in 95th District

(Saginaw, Michigan) - A few months after announcing his campaign for State Representative for the 95th District, Saginaw County Commissioner Amos O'Neal is proud to announce a growing list of endorsements from around Saginaw County community and the State of Michigan.

The campaign proudly announces the following endorsements:

- Reverend Dr. Roosevelt Austin, Sr.
- Reverend Dr. Roy Manning, President of the Wolverine State Baptist Convention
- Reverend Richard and Patricia Sayad
- Bishop Larry Camel

The latest round of endorsements increases the momentum of O'Neal's surging campaign and shows how O'Neal already represents the values of the 95th. Local leaders have partnered with him for years to create results.

All of these dedicated public servants have voiced their support for O'Neal's candidacy as a Strong Experienced Leader.

Reverend Dr. Roosevelt Austin, Sr.

"We deserve a State Representative who has the knowledge, judgment, work ethic, integrity and temperament to serve. The 95th District needs Amos O'Neal.

I, Roosevelt Austin, endorse Amos O'Neal for that assignment.

I know of Amos to be a passionate public servant. He is a dedicated professional who is committed to promoting truth, fairness and justice, and also a caring and compassionate man.

Amos has brought meaningful, positive change to the Saginaw community by serving on various committees and boards, including Health and Human Services, Saginaw City Council and currently County Commissioner. He is truly appreciated for the services he has rendered with strong leadership abilities in the many government capacities he has served. His dedication to public service, his integrity, and his understanding show me that he is a qualified, experienced candidate who will rise up to tackle the challenges that face our community each day.

I am honored to know, and I urge you to vote for Amos O'Neal for State Representative on August 4th."

"The 95th District needs a strong voice in Lansing, an advocate who will address the many needs of our District. Amos is dependable, honest, transparent, diplomatic and committed to all he does. Amos listens to people and addresses the needs and concerns of all age groups and ethnicities; he is open to suggestions while understanding that his task is in meeting the needs of the constituents for their betterment.

We need a person who is experienced in the political nuances of today. He has served as a Saginaw Councilman for 13 years and has been a County Commissioner since 2016 with a lengthy service record. I support Amos O'Neal as the 95th District Representative for the State of Michigan. He has the credentials and personality to affect change for the betterment for all."

Reverend Richard and Patricia Sayad:

"We fully support the election of Amos O'Neal as our State representative from the 95th District of Michigan.

Amos is a friend; we have known him for many years. In our observation, he is a Godly man, a family man, and a man fully prepared to serve this district in a professional and knowledgeable manner. We know Amos desires to serve God and others. He is well qualified!"

Bishop Larry Camel:

“Amos O’Neal is my good friend. In my role as pastor of the New Birth Missionary Baptist church, Amos and I have worked in the Saginaw community for many years. We are the Co-founders of Parishioners On Patrol, and have staffed many community outreach events in Saginaw together. Amos’ years of service to the People of Saginaw County through the Saginaw City Council and the Saginaw County Board of Commissioners shows his commitment to all of us. I heartily endorse Amos O’Neal for State Representative of the 95th District.”

Commissioner O’Neal commented, “Our campaign is only possible with the support of the Saginaw community. I am proud to have the endorsements of more than 40 leaders of faith in our community, the majority of whom live and vote in the 95th district. These individuals are religious leaders who we trust to make the important decisions regarding quality of life in Saginaw County and the State of Michigan. I am honored to have their support in my campaign for State Representative of the 95th District.”

With a focus on the issues that are on the mind of voters in Saginaw County, O’Neal stresses the importance of COVID-19 testing, protections for workers and unions, access for all to quality, affordable healthcare and greater funding for education and vocational training.

“Our future depends on strong leadership to not only help us recover from the COVID-19 pandemic but also to help build better outcomes for all of Michigan,” O’Neal said.
